

Deep Impact Coaching

with Julie Starr

Providing Continuous Professional Development
on your journey to Coaching Artistry

25 October 2018, 2.30pm - 5.30pm
The Mount Conference Centre, Belfast

This lively, interactive, thought provoking session will both support and challenge you to:

- Reflect on your behaviour and approach as a coach with an emphasis on coaching artistry.
- Consider your continuous learning with a focus on greater personal success and fulfilment.
- Lean into your coaching practice and/or business and identify opportunities for growth and change.

Using these three core areas of focus for any successful coach and through conversations, questions and gentle challenge you will be invited to deepen your impact in coaching.

Fee & Booking

£90.00 + VAT

Contact sarah@advancecoach.co.uk

Julie Starr

Julie Starr is an expert and thought-leader in the field of coaching and multiple bestselling author of The Coaching Manual, Brilliant Coaching and The Mentoring Manual. Translated into many languages and used across the world on coach training programmes, she has supported the evolution of coaching through simple, powerful principles and practical approaches. With over 20 years' and thousands of hours' coaching experience, Julie supports CEO's and executives from the world's largest organisations with an approach that is challenging, compassionate and empowers clear leadership.

Julie is MD of Starr Consulting, a leading provider of coach training in organisations.

www.starrconsulting.co.uk

Advance Coaching

Advance Coaching provides leadership, team and career coaching, ILM coaching qualifications and Coaching Supervision. We are passionate about supporting coaching artistry and delivering exceptional outcomes for executives, organisations and coaches.

Niamh Shiells, MD Advance Coach Ltd

www.advancecoach.co.uk